A NIGHT WITH A SEMINOLE.

Capt. F. O. Sebring, late of the U. S. navy, now in the service of the sleeping car department of the F. E. C. railway, tells a most amusing story on a member of Prof. Histed's West Palm Beach party that recently visited the Seminole Indian settlement south of Miami.

In relating the story Capt. Sebring said: "I have been laughing for a week at the relation of Louis Cenci's story of one of his experiences with an Indian while visiting Osceola's tribe recently in company with Prof. Histed. Cenci, who is a well known Italian painter of West Palm Beach, and who is highly educated, in fact, to be a real live Italian count, tells his experience somewhat in this way:

"I gotta in my bunk with 'nother man and go sleep. After while I dream it's raining and waka up. I looks up and it no raining at all, but big Indian set by side of my bunk with jug of whiskey between his legs, singing song like this: 'Sa-e-tan, Sa-e-tan, Alligator Joe!', etc. That Indian every time he finish a verse he take drink and spitta a-l-l over me, in my eyes, on my face and everywhere.

"I hollow, 'Charlie, you spitta on me some more and I shoota the b-l-o-outta you.' That Indian setta down the jug and spitta again an' I say, 'Charlie, you do that again and I killa you.' He finished 'nother verse an' spitta again, and I shouted loud, 'Charlie, I shoota hole through your reservoir if you don't shutta it off.' The Indian, he tooka 'nother drink and spitta again and I getta up and starta to shoota him, but I look round and see two thousand Indians watcha me. I had to getta up and sitta up all night while that Indian set perfectly still, sing, drink and spitta all night. I getta that Indian to Palm Beach I murder him."

"Well, sir," said Capt. Sebring, "it is better than a grand opera to hear Cenci tell that story. He gets so mad as he tells it, that he changes colors like a chameleon."

Nothing Equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for Bowel Complaints in Children.

"We have used Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy in our family for years," says Mrs. J. B. Cooke, of Nederland, Texas. "We have given it to all of our children.
